

GED

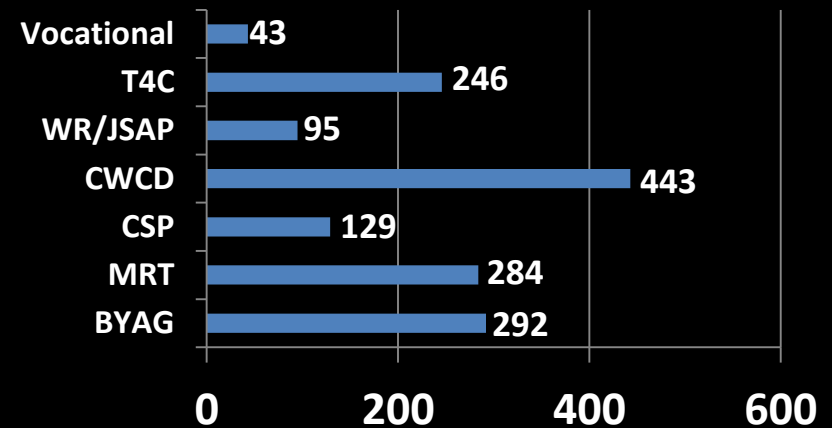

GED graduates

Inmates entering the state prison system who lack a high school diploma are required to work toward earning their GED credential while incarcerated. The South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation provides funding for inmates to receive Adult Education and Literacy (AEL) classes leading to the GED credential.

Education/Vocational course completions

FY 2018

Vocational courses include automotive body repair, automotive mechanics, welding, construction technology

T4C= Thinking for a Change; cognitive behavioral change

WR/JSAP= Work Readiness/Job Search Assistance Program; employment services and programs, resume development, job interviews and applications

CWCD= Credit Where Credit is Due; program on financial issues and responsibilities

CSP= Common Sense Parenting; course developed by Boys Town as a practical, skill-based program addressing decision making, communication, discipline, and relationships

MRT= Moral Reconation Therapy; cognitive behavioral treatment system leading to enhanced moral reasoning

BYAG= Bring Your A Game to Work; job skills